Excursions Tuesday 18 April

The program for this day has some changes! We request everybody to go on his own (with public transport) to the Museum Rembrandt House and NOT come to the Jaap Eden Ice rink. If you go by car there is a Parking Garage around the corner at the Muziek Theater/City Townhall but this is very expensive!

We can only enter the Rembrandthouse in a small number of people at a time because it is a very small building and we could not make a group booking.

Tuesday 18 April 2023

Museum Rembrandt House

The famous painter Rembrandt van Rijn has lived here a big part of his life and made here many paintings. The house and his workshop are still in the way it was in 1650 and have many beautiful paintings hanging on the walls. The visit will take around an hour and audio guiding is available in many languages.

The Waag building

Our meeting point is the old Waag building. In early days this was the city gate to enter or leave the city of Amsterdam. Later it was the building where everybody could weigh its sellings under supervision of the authorities. At Lunch time we will have the lunch inside the Waag building restaurant.

Walking trip through old city center

A special routing is set out as a puzzle tour through the old city center, find the answers to the questions about Amsterdam and win a special award.
